SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"It's never crowded along the extra mile."

Dr. Wayne Dyer

"Never say goodbye, because saying goodbye means going away, and going away means forgetting."

Peter Pan

"Change is hard at first, messy in the middle and gorgeous at the end."

Robin Sharma

"If you want others to be happy practice compassion; if you want yourself to be happy practice compassion."

The Dalai Lama

"We live in a country where if you want to go bomb somebody, there's remarkably little discussion about how much it might cost. But when you have a discussion about whether or not we can assist people who are suffering, then suddenly we become very cost-conscious."

Prof. Andrew

"If you want your children to turn out well spend twice as much time with them, and half as much money."

Abigail Van Buren

"Sometimes the most urgent and vital thing you can possibly do is take a complete rest."

SHORT BUT SWEET: One dear lady was not a cook, but the family decided that after many years, they should eat at home for Christmas. She said, "I've cooked this turkey for the first time and I'm going to bring it to the table. If it's not good, don't say a word. If it's not good, there will be no negative comments, we'll just go to a restaurant and have a meal." So, she went to the kitchen to get the turkey, only to come into the dining room to see her husband and son at the table with hat and coat on.
