SHORT BUT SWEET:

There was once a jockey who had an unbelievable winning record. Just before the end of any race, the jockey would lean way over and seemingly speak to the horse. A reporter asked the jockey what he did that made such a difference in the horse's speed. He replied: "I simply quote a little verse in his ear: 'Roses are red, violets are blue; Horses that lose are made into glue!'"

SOME THOUGHTS OF THE WEEK:

"When strangers start acting like neighbours communities are reinvigorated." Ralph Nader

"When you look at someone through rose-coloured glasses all the red flags just look like flags." Wanda Pierce

"Two things define you: Your patience when you have nothing and your attitude when you have everything." Imam Ali

"Walking with a friend in the dark is better than walking alone in the light." Helen Keller

"Hating people is like burning down your own house to get rid of a rat." Harry Fosdick

"Open your hands if you want to be held." Rumi

"One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning." James Lowell

"You can be the ripest, juiciest peach in the world, and there's still going to be somebody who hates peaches." Dita Von Teese

ONE SENTENCE SERMON:

The what if, if only, is a mind game that will drive you insane - Don't play it

THE POWER OF UNIQUENESS:

Today, I asked my mentor- a very successful business man in his 70's - what his top 3 tips are for success. He smiled and said ' Read something no one else is reading, Think something no one else is thinking and Do something no one else is doing' !

GLASH FUNDRAISER:

The committee of the recent fundraiser would like to thank everyone who supported and helped with the day. A total of £3,500 was raised for this very worthy cause which was divided between Marymount Hospice and the Irish Cancer Society.
