SHORT BUT SWEET: A father was telling a neighbour how he stopped his son from being late to school. "I bought him a car," he said. "How did that stop him from being late?" the neighbour asked. "Why, he's got to get there early to find a parking place!"

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"Every man's life ends the same way. It is only the details of how he lived and how he died that distinguish one man from another."

Ernest Hemingway

"I don't know how much longer I'll be around. I'll probably be writing when the Lord says, "Maya, Maya Angelou, it's time."

Maya Angelou

"Lighthouses don't go running all over an island looking for a boat to save; they just stand there shining."

Anne Lamott

"It is not the mountain we conquer but ourselves."

Sir Edmund Hillary

"It seems to me that the years between eighteen and twenty-eight are the hardest, psychologically. It's then you realise this is make or break, you no longer have the excuse of youth, and it is time to become an adult – but you are not ready."

Helen Mirren

"I think of life as a good book. The further you get into it, the more it begins to make sense."

Harold Kushner

ONE SENTENCE SERMON: There's always a little truth behind every "Just kidding", a little knowledge behind every "I don't know", a little emotion behind every "I don't care", and a little pain behind every "It's okay".
