SHORT BUT SWEET:

A Priest sent in his apologies for the Sunday morning service, claiming that he was ill with flu. One of the members however said he had seen the Priest on his way to a football game. After the service, the minister went to visit the Priest, "Father," he said, "I have information that you were not sick at all this morning, but went to watch a football game." The Priest protested: "That's a vicious lie! And I'll show you my FISH to prove it!"

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"There is no end to education. It is not that you read a book, pass an exam and finish with education. The whole of life, from the moment you are born to the moment you die is a process of learning." J. Krishnamurti

"It takes both sides to build a bridge."

Fredrick Nael

"A hero can be anyone. Even a man doing something as simple and reassuring as putting a coat around a little boy's shoulder to let him know the world hadn't ended." Bruce Wayne

"6+3=9 but so does 5+4. The way you do things isn't always the only way to do them. Respect other peoples way of thinking."

Comedyorjoke

"I used to believe that prayer changes things, but now I know that prayer changes us and we change things." Mother Theresa

"The best security blanket a child can have is parents who respect each other."

Jane Blaustone

"Sometimes, the most brilliant and intelligent students do not shine in standardised tests because they do not have standardised minds."

Diane Ravitch
