SHORT BUT SWEET:

One day a college girl was tacking her calendar for the new year on her room wall. She said to her roommate, "It's going to be a beautiful year!" "How do you know that?" asked her roommate. "Well," she replied, "a day isn't a long time and I know it's going to be beautiful because I'm going to take a day at a time and make it so. I will see that every one of those 365 days gets at least one beautiful thing into it through my efforts."

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"If we could not be bought by praise or defeated by criticism, we would have incredible strength. We would be extraordinarily free."

Dzongsar Rinpoche

"The true nature of a person isn't revealed when he hits rock bottom, but when he reaches the highest heights."

Abularfia

"You know what makes a good person good? When a good person does something bad, they own up to. They try to learn something from it and they move on."

Ron Swanson

"What is past is past. Never go back. Not for excuses. Not for justification, not for happiness. You are what you are, the world is what it is."

Mario Puzo

"There was no need to be ashamed of tears, for tears bore witness that a man had the greatest of courage, the courage to suffer."

V. Frankl

"Be picky about who you keep around you. Personalities, words and traits do rub off naturally."

Sonya Teclai

"Failure is a bruise, not a tattoo."

Jon Sinclair

"A moment of self-compassion can change your entire day. A string of such moments can change the course of your life."

Chris Germer
