SHORT BUT SWEET:

Mary's granddaughter Aisling came to spend a few weeks with her, and she decided to teach Aisling to sew. After Mary had gone through a lengthy explanation of how to thread the machine, Aisling stepped back, put her hands on her hips, and said in disbelief, "You mean gran you can do all that, but you can't operate a mobile phone?"

SOME THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK:

"Look at the stream, there are rocks in its way. Does it slam into them out of frustration? It simply flows over and around them and moves on! Be like the water and you will know what harmony is." Zen saying

"As I make my slow pilgrimage through the world, a certain sense of beautiful mystery seems to gather and grow." A.C. Benson

"Stop worrying about the potholes in the road and celebrate the journey!" Barbara Hoffman

"Celebrate your victories! Be verbal about it. Haters will say you're bragging, but those who love you will celebrate with you."

Steve Maraboli

"There are lots of people in this world who spend so much time watching their health that they haven't the time to enjoy it." Josh Billings

"Perhaps some day, modern people will learn that mystery is not the prison of the mind of people, it is their home." Walter Farrell

"Success is not built on success. It's built on failure. It's built on frustration. Sometimes it's built on catastrophe." Sumner Redstone
